SEXIEST CALENDARS 2010

Blimey! And we thought 2009 was a hot year!

We really thought that by 2010, we'd be overrun by hovercrafts, jet-packs and whole roast dinners in pill form. Sadly, those lazy scientists haven't got round to making any of this cool stuff for us yet – apart from hovercrafts.

On the bright side, 2010 will definitely be a new era of gorgeousness, thanks to spanking new calendars from Lucy Pinder, Staci, Lindsey Strutt, Chanelle Hayes and the Hollyoaks babes. Fear not, gentlemen – the future's bright, the future's sexy! ➔

CHANELLE HAYES

Hi Chanelle! Your new calendar was shot in Ibiza. Did you go clubbing every night? I wish! I was too busy working for that. But I did loads of sunbathing, which I love. What will Nuts readers think of your new calendar? They'll love it! And, hopefully, this year I'll have time to do more calendar signings in the UK. So if I'm lucky, I'll also get to meet some of them, too!

If there was a Chanelle Hayes Day, what would happen on it? That's a tough one but I think that all the girls would have to wear sexy outfits, make-up and heels, and all the guys would have to buy us flowers and diamonds and treat us!

If a man wanted to give you an unforgettable month, what should he do? Tell the truth for a whole month without lying to me once! It's never happened so far, so it'd definitely be unforgettable. Ha-ha!

Where would be a good place to put your calendar? As wallpaper in every room of your house! And you could send it off to one of those companies that changes pictures into bed sheets, so you could sleep with me every night!

If you dropped your car into a garage and your calendar was up on the wall, what would you do? Sign it, flirt and get my car fixed for free!

If you could do a calendar with anyone, who would it be? I'd have to say the one and only Lucy Pinder! That way, you'd get twice the hotness - my bum, her boobs and both our faces! Who wouldn't want that hanging on their walls?

If you could get rid of one month from the year, which would it be? February. It's so pointless. It's just cold, wet, windy and depressing if you don't have a date when Valentine's Day comes around!

Do you have a message for Nuts readers for 2010? Enjoy 2010 and enjoy my calendar as much as I enjoyed making it! ➔

LUCY PINDER

Hi Lucy! You've just finished shooting your 2010 calendar – is it your best one ever?

Of course! It was great fun and it's a bit different from what I've done before. It's cool. It looks very polished and the location was great – a house built into a cliff in Ibiza that looks out over the resort. I think sleek's the word.

Oh, and sexy of course. Very sexy!

What's your fave pic from the shoot?

That's tough! I think the one that's going to be on the back cover. It's me lying down in a black swimsuit. I hope Nuts readers will like it, too!

If you took your car into a garage to get it fixed and your calendar was up on the wall, what would you do?

This has happened to me – not in a garage but when I missed a package delivery. I went to the courier company and there I was, on the wall! It's quite nice but a bit surreal. "Ooh, look – there I am!"

What's your favourite time of the year?

I'm not sure. I like the sun when we have it but I also love Christmas. I'm not really an autumn or spring person because it just seems to rain all the time!

If Richard Branson gets his space tourism thing going, would you do the first topless shoot on the moon?

Ha-ha! Wouldn't there be issues with gravity? I don't know how it would work! Maybe, though...

If we had a whole month dedicated to Lucy Pinder, what would it be like?

Blimey! Right, everyone could have the whole month off work and it would be illegal not to have loads of parties. If I was in control of the country, it'd definitely be a proper fun place to live!

Thanks for the chat, Lucy! But before we go, do you have a message for 2010 for the Nuts readers?

I hope you all had a great 2009 and hope that 2010 is just as much fun! ➔

"Why can't I wear this for graduation?"

"Hi class, I'm your new swimming teacher!"

GEMMA MERNA

Hi Gemma! You've just done another Hollyoaks calendar – do you think the Nuts readers will like it?

Of course! There are lots of girls looking glamorous and sexy – what's not to like? Guys will have plenty to feast their eyes on!

What's good about this one? It's all around a swimming pool in the sunshine so it looks really fresh and summery, everyone looks gorgeous and you'll have all the sexy new cast members to look at.

Which month of the year is your favourite? February! It's my birthday month, so that means I have to go out and party for the whole four weeks, doesn't it?

What time of the year is best? Summer, of course! Everyone feels better when the weather's brighter and the days are longer. I love it when it's sunny – I go shopping or to the park to sunbathe.

If a man wanted to give you an unforgettable month, what should he do? Oh, I'd love a month full of surprises! He should take me away somewhere romantic, buy me lots of lovely dresses and take me out for dinner. I'd love to be spoilt rotten for a whole month.

If there were a Gemma Merna Day, how would we celebrate it? I'd give everyone the day off work – you'd all be allowed to stay at home and do anything you wanted to do. It'd be a completely free day!

Where should Nuts readers put their Hollyoaks calendar? On the bedroom wall! That's where it goes, isn't it? I don't have one there myself – I can hardly put my own calendar up, that'd be a bit weird. But I might get one made with my lovely puppies on it – I'm talking about my dogs!

Before you go, if you could do a shoot with any other girl in the world, who would it be? Jennifer Aniston, because she always does lovely shoots and they're tasteful but still sexy. She's hot! Yep, I'd definitely like to do a shoot with her!

"Did you steal my button?"

JENNIFER METCALFE

Hi Jen! We love the new Hollyoaks calendar. Where did you shoot it? We went to an amazing house in Hertfordshire and then spent the whole shoot standing outside it in underwear! It wasn't exactly warm, either, but it was lots of fun.

And what do you think of the results? They're amazing! It's the best, sexiest calendar we've ever done. I've been involved in about four of these calendar shoots and this is by far the best one yet – the girls all look so hot!

What's it like being on a Hollyoaks calendar shoot? It's brilliant fun! We had to shoot over a few days because there are so many people, but everyone had a good laugh.

Will you be giving this calendar to your male friends as a present? I've never done that before, but this year I might give a few away because it's so good! Can you imagine that on Christmas Day? People unwrapping a picture of me in my underwear? Enjoy!

If you could do a calendar shoot with anyone, who would you choose?

Gemma Merna. We always work really well together and it'd stick with the Hollyoaks theme as well!

What's the sexiest time of year? Summer, of course! August is the best time because it's getting towards the end of the summer, so everybody's making the best of it. We're all out getting the last bit of suntan and enjoying some time in the beer gardens before the rain.

If we were to have an official Jennifer Metcalfe Day, how would we celebrate? Everybody should go and round up their friends, go to the beach or a local park and light up barbecues. Then we'd get DJs to play and everybody would spend the day drinking and dancing. It'd be a great big party!

Finally, do you have a message for the Nuts readers for 2010? Bring it on! Let's have a massive year and make 2010 loads of fun! ➔

She really flattened that bug

LINDSEY STRUTT

Hi Lindsey! You shot your calendar with loads of sexy ladies, you lucky thing.

Where was it? The shoot was at a villa in Marbella, so it was straight from the beach into make-up and into my shots!

How would you fit your life into a calendar? It'd just be a different pub for every month. Ha-ha!

How would you shoot your own calendar? Most calendars are shot in the sun so I'd like to do something edgy and sexier – I want to raunch it up and get creative!

What's your favourite day of the year? It'd have to be my birthday! Then you get pampered all day long. I was born in April though, so it normally rains, but never mind!

If you got all the big-boobed ladies in our 2010 calendar special together in one place, what would you do with them? Make a big boob pillow.

It'd be so comfortable! Sometimes, when I'm in bed, I lay my head down and just rest my chin on them. They're very comfy!

What's the sexiest time of the year? Summer. All the girls are in bikinis by the pool – everyone's basically naked. I can see why guys like it!

Are you going to give your calendar to male mates as presents? Oh, of course! I'm always handing out topless pictures of myself – my male friends are always grateful. Ha-ha!

If you could get rid of one month of the year, which would it be? January! It's boring, cold and rainy, and you can't wear anything sexy.

If there was a Lindsey Strutt Day, what would happen on it? Everyone would be partying on holiday! And in bikinis, of course. No clothes allowed on Lindsey Strutt Day!

Where would you like to shoot next year's calendar? Somewhere funky that nobody's ever been before. Thailand, maybe.

Or outer space?

Ha-ha! I don't know what my boobs would do without gravity, but it'd be fun to find out! ➔

STACI

Hi Staci! This shoot is pretty sexy for a calendar, eh? It's sexy enough for the whole year round! It was really hot in Marbella so I didn't mind stripping down. I think they're the sexiest pictures I've ever done.

We agree! What made it so sexy?

Well, all the girls were there, so that helped! We were all sunbathing while we worked.

Who caught your eye? If I had to pick one stand-out, it'd be Lucy Pinder's boobs. When you see them up close, they're amazing!

Where would be a good place to put this year's calendar? The fridge, so you could see me every time you go for a beer. Ha-ha!

What are your plans for 2010? I want to move to London and I'm taking a year off from uni as well.

Moving to London? You could pop into Nuts Towers whenever you like! Definitely! If I came into the office I'd spend all day looking at all the sexy ladies from the past issues!

Do you think that Nuts readers will like the calendar? I hope so! The usual stuff I do is quite cutesy, but this is a bit more raunchy.

Will you give the calendar to your male friends as a present? That's a great idea – I could give it to them for Christmas! I'm very proud of these pictures so I'll take every opportunity to show them off.

Where would you like to go to shoot next year's calendar? I'd love to go somewhere exotic, like the Amazon. Bit dangerous, though. I might have to settle for Blackpool!

If you could do a calendar shoot with another girl, who would it be? I'd choose either Lindsey Strutt or Lucy Pinder because they're even hotter in the flesh, believe me. Plus, I'm a blonde and they're brunettes so it'd look brilliant. Do you think you guys could sort it out for me?

We'll try! Finally, what message would you like to send to the Nuts readers?

I'd like to thank them for all their support and I hope that you get to see a lot more of me in the future! ■

The sexy ladies head to Ibiza for a sizzingly saucy sun-kissed holiday

It's the end of a rubbish, soggy British summer, we're all still skint and a swine flu-fighting autumn is on the way. So can anything cheer us up as the sun prepares to yet again disappear indefinitely? Step forward Sophie Howard and Porchia Watson!

These exclusive pictures show the terrific top-heavy twosome

The perfect pair treated residents at the party island's jammiest hotel to a fever-inducing view as they whipped off their bikini tops and lolled about on a lilo.
